TRUE TUESDAYS

a Zoom series hosted by the Transforming Rural Understanding of Equity (TRUE) Partnership

Rural Minnesota Social Justice Champions and Equity Advocates, please join us for a series of interactive explorations to identify, nurture, model and advance actions that support a rural Minnesota that is safe, inclusive and prosperous for all.

Offered free of charge by the TRUE Partnership*, our intention to host a future in-person gathering that builds on the relationships and co-learning created during this time of physical distancing.

SESSION TEN: Sharing YOUR Rural Narrative

April 13, 2021, 2:30-4:00 pm

Registration Link: <https://tinyurl.com/TRUESession10>

Hosted by Camille Caster-Cyprian , moderated by Dawn Espe

Hear from partners at Region Five Development Commission, Growth & Justice, Voices for Rural Resilience and Department of Public Transformation as they share how they used storytelling to help deepen the understanding of what local residents are doing on a daily basis to advance equity and anti-racism work in their communities, and to learn what is needed to sustain the emotionally taxing work of being from, working within, and living the change you wish to see in your community.

FUTURE SESSIONS

Every three weeks, we offer an opportunity for rural Minnesota social justice champions and equity advocates to explore challenging issues within a supportive learning community. Here's a preview of the sessions we are designing.

 Reframing Immigrant Entrepreneur Values
